Magical Earth Retreats and Nordic Hills Lodge are jointly offering the children and families of Sandy Hook Elementary School a 5-day long Magical Earth Adventure (Day Camp) the week of July 22-26. Debbie and Terry Perkins, owners of Nordic Hills Lodge, will provide lodging; Magical Earth Retreats will provide camp scholarships. This event will offer some much needed respite from every day life and the opportunity for these parents to reconnect with their children, nature and their creative side.

The Camps are managed and run by Jane and Don Jones, along CS Wurzberger, founder/CEO of atriptothezoo.com, Monica Johnson Crawford and other teachers and artists from the area (all back ground checked). Magical Earth Retreats believes there is severe nature deficit disorder in the world today and aspires to eliminate this disorder one child (or adult) at a time. Earth Adventures provides an opportunity for a simultaneous connection with nature and art.

This will be a major event for the Deerfield Valley area. Magical Earth Retreats are also looking for camp assistance. If you are interested in volunteering or offering services or additional lodging for this event, please email Jane at info@magicalearthretreats.com. We look forward to you joining us in the Magic of Nature!

Donations towards lodging and scholarships (both at cost) for this event are also being sought. (Neither organization will profit from this event.) Please be generous and send a tax deductible donation of any size to Magical Earth Retreats, 1693 Branch Hill Road, Readsboro, VT 05350. PayPal donations are accepted on our website: www.magicalearthretreats.com . Official tax filing documents will be provided.
